

Telephone Conversation Between DCI Colby and Carl Duckett, DDS&T, at 11:30 a.m., on 11 February 1975 (Note: Although the stenographic notes of this conversation were taken on 11 February 1975, the transcription that follows was not made until 10 November 1977, as the result of an FOIA request.)

** _____: I gather the guy wants to talk to you.

** _____: Yes. He is (convinced) that Seymour Hersh knows (more than he does), and he is determined to put it out. He was urging to talk to both of us.

** _____: I don't think we have been (Note: next word indistinct). We told the Times that L. A. was going to cut it off, so why don't we do vice versa?

** _____: I think so. It was not a hostile meeting. So I guess we just do the best we can.

** Note: The stenographer's notes do not indicate which party was speaking.
